

PRESS RELEASE

PEMBROKESHIRE FRIENDS OF THE EARTH

June 22nd 2015

Wildlife and Shipwrecks Explained on Scenic Walk

Pictured are supporters of Pembrokeshire Friends of the Earth enjoying the spectacular scenery of the Pembrokeshire coast near Marloes Sands on a recent guided walk. The rich wildlife of the area was explained by tour guide Kate Lock of the Skomer Marine Conservation Zone while local history expert Christopher Jessop provided fascinating tales of shipwrecks, ancient settlements and other topics of interest.

ENDS

For further information contact Gordon James on 01437563670